You'll also find Banana Republic, Ann Taylor Loft, Crabtree & Evelyn, Gap, Eddie Bauer, Gymboree, and Victoria's Secret. A food court is available should the munchies crop up while you're browsing the storefronts and burning up the plastic.

University Park Village

1612 S University Dr, Fort Worth 76107

Description: In a college town, you can generally expect to find an enclave of fashionable shops and stores. This complex, located near Texas Christian University, fulfills expectations, featuring Gap, Barnes & Noble, Pottery Barn, Victoria's Secret, Harold's, and Williams-Sonoma. Some of the city's best-loved restaurants can also be found in the area, providing an apt diversion during a day of shopping and browsing.

Ridgmar Mall

2060 Green Oaks Rd, Fort Worth 76116 • 817-731-0641

Description: Following multi-million dollar renovations, this mall gained new prominence and style. Its airy interior boulevards, animated with bright colors, gurgling water features, and whimsical sculptures, lead to such stores as Neiman Marcus, Sears, Dillard's, and JCPenney. Other recognizable establishments include new York & Company, Old Navy, Ann Taylor, Bath & Body Works, and Victoria's Secret. An array of fast food stands and restaurants add to the mall's appeal, as do specialty shops, salons, and optometrists.

Stockyards Station

130 E Exchange Ave off N Main St, Fort Worth 76106 • 817-625-9715

Description: A former livestock market, this area has gained new life as a retail and entertainment district. These days, the original cattle, hog, and sheep pens have been converted into venues for more than 30 businesses. Restaurants, antique shops, gift boutiques, and entertainment destinations can all be found, and visitors can take walking tours of the area with maps supplied by the Tourist Information Center on Exchange Avenue. As an added bit of nostalgia, the Tarantula Train travels to the heart of the station with its 19th century steam locomotive and passenger coaches. Amid the rustic atmosphere, a live longhorn cattle drive takes place daily from 11:30am to 4pm.

Grapevine Mills

3000 Grapevine Mills Pkwy, Grapevine 76051 • 972-724-4900

Description: GRAPEVINE. Drawing avid shoppers from much farther afield than just the greater Dallas area, this expansive mall includes over 200 stores, from manufacturers' outlets to off-price specialty stores with much in-between. Ann Taylor Loft, Chico's, Hollister, Gap, Tommy Hilfiger, OFF 5th Saks Fifth Avenue, and the Disney Store all have a presence here. Entertainment options include an ice skating arena and a 30-screen movie theater. Plus, hungry shoppers find respite at the extensive food court.

Highland Park Village

47 Highland Park Shopping Village, Dallas 75205 • 214-559-2740

Description: HIGHLAND PARK. A shopping center with an unusual amount of history, Highland Park Village opened in 1931. It was the first collection of shops of its kind in the nation and has served as the model for many to come. An architectural melange of Spanish, Mediterranean, and Mexican styles, the open-air center became a town square of sorts and was designated a National Historic Landmark in 2000. Today, upscale shops and restaurants populate the space, including Banana Republic, Hermès, Escada, Jimmy Choo, and Harry Winston.

Galleria

13350 Dallas Pkwy, Dallas 75240 • 972-702-7100

Description: GALLERIA. Located in northern Dallas, this upscale shopping bonanza offers restaurants, clothiers, and gift shops. Top-notch retail venues include Gucci, Saks, Macy's, Cartier, and Versace. An indoor skating rink and seasonal holiday decorations add to the appeal. Great people-watching opportunities, too.

Specialty Shops

Record Town

3025 S University Dr, Fort Worth 76109 • 817-926-1331

Description: The family who owns and operates this record store knows the music industry and the sounds that please their customers. As a result, they stock current, hard-to-find, and classic releases. Music has played a large part in the lives of the Brutons, so you can count on the novel store to supply folks with the best (and most eclectic) tunes available! The store is small, but you're certain to make some great finds! The place is also fun if you just want to browse the selection and chat with the owners. Located in the TCU area.

Uncommon Angles

1616 S University Dr Ste 303, Fort Worth 76109 • 817-335-9933

Description: This fascinating gift shop features the works of over 200 artists. Handmade jewelry, especially silver pieces, are prominently displayed, but you'll also find innovative furniture designs, glassware, and more. New works are frequently exhibited, and given the gallery's popularity, it's a good idea to act quickly when you see something you just have to have. The fun, colorful place also offers upscale gifts.

Home to Garden

3986 W Vickery Blvd, Fort Worth 76107 • 817-377-0318

Description: This exceptional store carries a selection of items for indoor and outdoor beautification. Plants, bulbs, and topiaries top the list of garden goods, and unusual decorative accessories make great additions to the home. Beautiful, creative landscaping around the store invites customers to stop for a moment and visualize how they could improve their own homes and gardens. Located west of town.

Peters Bros. Hats

909 Houston St, Fort Worth 76102 • 817-335-1715

Description: If you just can't leave Texas without a hat, make sure you look here first. Hats are all they do, so you know the quality is top-rate. Plus, you can find options extending beyond the ubiquitous cowboy headwear. Handmade hats of any style imaginable are a real treat, but you can also buy off-the-rack if you're looking for something more dress-up than everyday. Felt dress hats, straw golf hats, and even the stylish chapeau popularized by Indiana Jones are all available. The business can also clean, repair, and renovate old hats or create a replica from one in a photograph.

Dee Jay's Candles

2828 W 7th St, Fort Worth 76107 • 817-737-2355

Description: This terrific shop is family operated and boasts a wealth of wonderful scents. All candles are made on the premises from quality materials and burn slowly and last longer as a result. You'll find a variety of sizes and types, including votives, pillars, tealights, and jar candles. Delectable scents fall into such categories as floral, holiday, designer, fruit, and traditional (cinnamon, leather, fresh cake, and herbal mist).

Luskey Ryon's Western Wear

2601 N Main St, Fort Worth 76106 • 800-725-7966

Description: Developed from a dry goods store in 1919, this local institution is now owned and managed by the third generation of the same family. They stock practically any sort of Western wear you could imagine, including garments for both men and women. Jackets, vests, bomber jackets, boots, Wrangler jeans, cowboy hats, dress shirts and work shirts, and even gloves and cologne are available. Brand names include Justin, Tony Lama, Lucchese, Filson, and Carhartt. Handmade boots and hats are a specialty. Gorgeous, hand-tooled saddles and tack can also be purchased.

Elegant Flowers

4416 Lemmon Ave, Dallas 75219 • 214-522-3790

Description: NEAR LOVE FIELD. Need to send a "thank you" but you're short on ideas and time? Stop in or call, choose a floral arrangement, and they'll deliver it for you! The shop stocks practically any combination of flowers and greens you can think of, and the helpful staff know what they're doing when it comes to design. Bilingual staff (Spanish and English).

Pogo's Wine & Spirits

5360 W Lovers Ln, Dallas 75209 • 214-350-8989

Description: WEST LOVERS LANE. Don't be turned off by the cartoonish name; Pogo's is a serious wine shop with an impressive inventory of fine vintages and a knowledgeable staff. The store also sells liquors, cordials, and beers from around the world.

Official Dallas Cowboys Pro Shop

13350 Dallas Pkwy Dallas Galleria, Dallas 75240 • 972-661-1114

Description: GALLERIA. This shop is a mecca for die-hard fans of the Dallas Cowboys pro football team. The shop sells T-shirts, sweatshirts, caps, pennants, gear bags, and mugs – virtually anything that can be stamped with the Cowboys' silver-and-blue logo. Stock up for everybody back home!

Bachendorf's

13350 Dallas Pkwy Level One, Dallas 75240 • 972-392-9900

Description: GALLERIA. If you're in the market for diamonds, there's no better place to buy them. The founder of this jewelry shop, in business since before 1900, brought his artistry talents from St. Petersburg. His family still owns and operates the shop – one of Dallas' finest custom jewelry designers. Here you can find sparkling diamond jewelry as well as exquisite crystal and porcelain pieces.
